

message
from the sun

message
from the sun

Freiburg 2024

when the wolves are silent the night is getting even darker nobody can see where they are close your eyes fearless heart on a recent flight through shining clouds of light to the center of the sun so many years have passed like we could never find the place we always knew the words sound clear and bright the light is just inside

